

NOTICE -- EARLY INPUT COMMUNITY MEETINGS

The Department of Conservation's Geologic Energy Management Division (CalGEM) is looking to update and strengthen public health and safety protections near oil and gas extraction facilities. CalGEM is holding a series of 10 community meetings across California. Concerns shared at these community meetings will inform a new formal rulemaking effort.

SUBMISSION OF COMMENTS

Written submissions may be provided to CalGEM by regular mail or email at:

Department of Conservation
801 K Street, MS 24-02
Sacramento, CA 95814
ATTN: Public Health Near Oil Gas Rulemaking

Email: CalGEMRegulations@conservation.ca.gov

At the community meetings participants will have options for sharing their perspectives:

- A form for written comments
- Sharing at the microphone
- Sharing through anonymous smart phone text submission
- Contributing with a marker or pen to posters on the wall of the meeting room to indicate issues of concern (with a check mark) or by noting an issue of concern on chart paper.
- Sending an email to CalGEMRegulations@conservation.ca.gov

Information shared by participants at the early input community meetings will not be recorded. Comments are welcome through April 10, 2020. Comments received throughout the early input engagement period will be reviewed and considered as CalGEM works to develop a Discussion Draft in anticipation of a formal rulemaking.
